

I imagine more unchurched people in our small groups.

I imagine the handicapped-accessible seating filled with wheelchairs.

I imagine the Sanctuary seats filling up from the front.

I imagine racial barriers being removed and more diversity in our church.

I imagine everyone participating in prayer and worship with boldness.

I imagine being excited to share what God is doing in my life.

I imagine people coming through our doors because they are attracted to how the gospel has transformed the lives of our members.

I imagine people confronting their brokenness and resting in God's love and holiness.

I imagine God-centered, whole-hearted worship.

I imagine people living their lives as if the Gospel mattered.

I imagine doing community service more regularly.

The background features a large, faint, multi-lined circular graphic on the left side, and two smaller, similar multi-lined circular graphics on the right side, one above the other. The text is centered horizontally and positioned in the middle of the frame.

I imagine hearing and sharing more stories about how God uses the ordinary for the extraordinary.

I imagine eating more meals together with church members and neighbors.

The background is dark blue with several concentric circles of varying sizes, some overlapping, creating a sense of depth and focus. The text is centered within the largest circle.

I imagine Sunday services where skeptics and unconvinced people attend because they experience an authentically worshiping community and teaching that connects with their biggest concerns.

I imagine small groups where biblical truth is applied to everyday challenges.

I imagine a church that trains up the next generation and is ready to plant churches in areas of need throughout the North Shore.

I imagine my best friends, coworkers, and the rest of my family having Jesus as their God.

The background is a dark blue gradient. It features a large, faint, multi-lined circular graphic in the upper left quadrant. In the lower right quadrant, there are two smaller, similar multi-lined circular graphics, one larger than the other, arranged in a descending sequence.

I imagine my friends and family not fearing death, the past, or the future, because they trust that God has everything under control, and that He wants the best for them because He loves them.

I imagine my friends and neighbors commenting about how our attitudes are friendly and different – in a good way.

I imagine conversations with my kids about Jesus at home around the family dinner table.

I imagine our college ministry having more Endicott students than Gordon students.

I imagine my best friend saying “yes” to Jesus.
