

Sixth Sunday After Pentecost
July 5, 2026

The Risen Christ Seeks and Saves

Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

—Luke 19:9-10

REFLECTION FOR WORSHIP

"Shame is the intensely painful feeling that we are unworthy of love and belonging."

—Brené Brown

"To be loved but not known is comforting but superficial. To be known and not loved is our greatest fear. But to be fully known and truly loved is, well, a lot like being loved by God. It is what we need more than anything. It liberates us from pretense, humbles us out of our self-righteousness, and fortifies us for any difficulty life can throw at us."

—Tim Keller

"To know God demands that we be willing to be touched by Divine love. To be touched by God's love is to be forever changed. To surrender to Divine love is to find our soul's home--the place and identity for which we yearn in every cell of our being."

—David Benner

PRAYER

Community Focus:

Pray for Kevin Arevalo, new associate candidate at Center Grace Church in Beverly. Please pray for him, his wife (Beverly and kids, Adriana, Diego and Matias) as they prepare for this transition.

Congregation Focus:

Pray for our church as we search for a new youth minister.

We continue to pray for the expectant mothers in our congregation. As God knits these little ones together, we ask for safe deliveries and full provision for their families.

We thank God that Heidi Duncan-Murray has completed a year and a half of chemotherapy treatments. We pray for her body as it now recovers from this long process. We also join her in praying as she anticipates surgery at the end of July.

We praise the Lord for the safe arrival of the Weeks' new baby girl!
Want to help? Sign up for their meal train at nscbc.org/meals

World Focus:

We lift up Venezuela in prayer as they recover from two earthquakes that took place this last week.
